

New Running Store Coming to Ubly

There is new business opening up in Ubly, Michigan. This will be a running store to bring all your running needs to you. Erica Klee the owner of Running in The Country is very excited for this new opportunity. She says “I am extremely excited to bring something to Ubly that I have always looked for. Running is something I am very passionate about and I have always wanted to own my own business.” Klee has been running since she was in the 6th grade and ran all through out highschool. She says “I always looked to shop somewhere local for all my running needs but there never was a store available. I have lots of friends in the thumb that were also looking for somewhere local to shop and that is what sparked my interest.”The public is also extremely excited to welcome a new business to town.

Ubly Residents Excited About The New Store

Ubly is a small town and sees little to no new business coming in. But the public says they want that to change and they want people to come to town. Jamie a resident of Ubly says “ I am so excited for a new business coming to town. I have not been much of a runner ever but I am very avid walker so I am very excited about a store with a great selection of shoes.” Running in The Country is set to open on February 5th, 2024. There will be an open house on that day with special deals, drawings, and light refreshments. Jamie says she will be there and so will many other community members that are very excited for Running in The Country to open.
